

Hartford Republican

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

JO. S. ROGERS, Editor and Proprietor.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1892.

THE Christmas number of Fettes Southern Magazine is a beauty.

MR. BEN D. RINGO, of the Hartford Herald, will be married December 14th to Miss Emma Ryan, of Logan county.

THOSE who claim to know, say that the L. H. & W. R. R. will be extended to Hartford within the next two years. So mote it be.

Mrs. MARY FRAME, a woman of talent and education, of Richmond, Ind., has announced that the world is to come to an end in 1899.

JAY GOULD, the great railroad magnate, who for years has controlled the money, and largely the other markets of the world, died at his home in New York City, on the 31st inst. He is said to be worth $100,000,000.

PROF. O. M. SHULTZ's talk Saturday in the Teachers Association, on "Can't, Can and Will," was a happy hit. Those teachers who were in town but absent from the meeting were treated to a happy, though kindly roasting.

THOUGH small in number, the County Association held at the College Hall on last Saturday, was no doubt one of the most successful educational meetings ever held in the county. Let the good work go on. The next meeting is announced for the 1st Saturday in January and the program will be out in ample time.

A POPULAR young lady in Evansville's society had a wayward lover, and attempted to reform him by donning male attire and hunting him up at his favorite resorts, but the police appeared on the scene and broke into her arrangements by placing her under arrest. Beware, young ladies, if you have a wayward lover, "shift him."

THE various Democratic papers are now claiming that the Republican Senate should pass the Tariff legislation promised the people in the Chicago platform and thus assume the responsibility for the miserable policy advocated in that wonderful addition to political history. The Democracy is afraid to assume the responsibility of carrying out its own promises. No wonder. It would ruin any party to do so.

THE suggestion for a Reading Club among the teachers of the county, is very opportune. The Ohio County Teachers Institute, no doubt has one of the best libraries in the State, but the vast majority of the books lie idle throughout the year and are never read. A Reading Club in connection with the library would be a great incentive to more thorough and systematic preparation on the part of the teachers, thereby insuring in their work greater satisfaction and greater benefits to their pupils.

SINCE Mr. Cleveland has been elected President for the second time he has grown quite brave. It will be remembered that thirty years ago he was afraid to shoulder his gun and march off to the South so he hired a substitute to do that for him, but since the 8th ult., he has become so heroic as to shoulder his gun and invade Virginia. But if we are to judge the case by its results, it appears that the advantage lies with the substitute, for while it was against the law for him to shoot rebels Cleveland finds himself arrested for shooting game in the Old Dominion.

PRESIDENT JAMES MCGINNIS, of Owensboro, has published the program of the meeting of the County and City Superintendents Union, which is to be held at Louisville on the 29th and 30th, inst. The session promises to be a very interesting one, as the subjects for discussion are live and the gentlemen to whom they are assigned are among our ablest school men. This organization, which was organized last December, can do a great work for the educational interests of the State, if the various County and City Superintendents give it their support. In education as in other matters, union is strength. No official duties are apt to require the attention of the Superintendents on these dates, so that absentees from this very important meeting will be rather hard pressed for excuses. The program will not only be of interest to Superintendents, but to teachers and education generally, as one will conclude after turning to his November number of that most excellent publication, the educational Courant, where the program will be found at length. Dear reader, you will notice that we say his in referring to the Courant, for it is unjust to presume that any live teacher does himself the unkindness to be without that prince among educational papers.

Complimentary.

[Educational Courant.]

We have been for a long time accustomed to hearing kind words and reading complimentary notices of the Courant from persons in our own State who say they find it useful on all occasions, but we were just a little surprised and not a little pleased to read in the Hartford Republican the following from a letter written to that paper from Danville, Indiana. After describing Columbus Day exercises at the Central Normal College, the writer says:

"At the close of the exercises here everybody repaired to the public school building, where the township exercises were to take place. These exercises were exactly the program given in the September number of the educational Courant, of Louisville, Ky. They were well read, and were enjoyed by the audience."

LOUISVILLE.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN.—I left Rosine on the 8th of November for Louisville, returning to our school. This being election day, of course I found things at a maximum pitch; only lasted a short while, however, as the election is all over everything reigns quiet, except office applicants which seems to be innumerable. The result of the election is indeed a surprise to most everyone.

I, having been confined closely in school, have heard but little gossip. We have a very fine school with a fine faculty. Our boarding house is also elegant, run by our Ohio county friends, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. W. Raley; has quite a number of boarders all of whom satisfied. No one has an occasion to leave this house, except one who is prone to be somewhat boisterous, then he is only asked to let some quiet man take his place. By this means they have almost exclusively what may be termed select boarders. I room with Dr. J. C. Pannenberg, V. S., of Ill. Live Stock Association. The Doctor is one of the first-class men of our school. Comes well recommended by a number of first-class men of Rockford and Chicago. The Doctor received a Thanksgiving box from his wife and friends, Mollie and Kate. The box contained quite a number of eatables, which was as fine as could be gotten up. He invited Drs. Correll, Cranford and Magan, of Texas, to take supper with him and as to what a nice time we had was explained by the time we got up next morning. However, Dr. Pannenberg got up in time to perform the difficult operation in surgery, of which he seems to be almost an expert. Everything has gone smoothly in our school except an overcoat thief made a raid on the boys and stole several overcoats, but as a reward for that he was lodged in jail, and the boys found their coats in a pawn shop. B. W.

County Teachers' Association.

Pursuant to call made by Supt. Rogers several teachers of the county met at the College Hall, Saturday, 3rd, at 10 a. m. Mr. O. M. Shultz was made Temporary Chairman and Miss Dora E. Gibson, Temporary Secretary. There being so few present the meeting adjourned until 1 o'clock p. m. At the appointed hour Mr. Shultz called the meeting to order. A permanent organization was effected, Mr. Shultz being elected President of the Association, Miss Dora E. Gibson, Secretary, and Miss Lucy B. Townsend, Treasurer. The inaugural remarks of the President were well received, pertaining as they did to the importance of the proposed work, setting forth the benefits to be derived from the hearty co-operation of earnest teachers in such an organization. Dr. Alexander's address, "Why We Fail," should have been heard by every teacher of the county. The grand truths, logically enunciated, could not fail to win the approbation of the faithful, zealous workers in our ranks, nor could they fail to strike also with telling effect, those who, themselves, acknowledge they are failures in the profession of teaching. He said, "The chief cause of failure is, they do not make their work paramount above all else." Other causes mentioned were, lack of system, lack of discipline, lack of qualification and lack of self-control. His address furnished much food for thought and interspersed, as it was, with laughable personal reminiscences it proved a most valuable and interesting feature of the afternoon's programme.

Miss Eva Morton, with a grace and dignity, peculiarly her own, favored the audience with a Vocal Solo which was greatly enjoyed by all. The pen picture of "My School" by Miss Lucy Townsend, won lusty applause. That her heart is in the work, is apparent and the people of Sulphur Springs have cause to congratulate themselves that they have such a teacher as Miss Lucy is—earnest, capable and energetic.

The Choruses by the Choral Club were beautifully rendered and were much enjoyed by the audience, as was manifested by the hearty applause bestowed. Mr. Shultz's address, "The Can't, Can and Will" about in many wholesome truths and will be productive of much good, for undivided attention was accorded him throughout his speech and much favorable comments have been awarded him since. The Secretary suggested that a Reading Circle be organized in connection with the Association, in order to extend the practice of reading among the teachers, encourage a more general use of the books in the Teachers' Library, and to render the read ing more effective. The suggestion met with the approval of a number of the teachers present and was decided to inaugurate it at the next meeting of the County Association. Miss Lucy Townsend, Prof. J. W. Lytle and the Secretary were appointed to draft a program and name the date for the next meeting. There being no other business to transact after a beautiful Vocal Quartet by Messrs. Nelson, Foster, — and Berkshire the body adjourned to meet again the first Saturday in January. O. M. SHULTZ, Pres. DORA E. GIBSON, Sec'y.

NOTES.

The Association regretted that office duties prevented the attendance of Supt. Rogers.

Miss Maggie Nall rendered valuable assistance in the music furnished. She is an excellent instructor and, moreover, her work is appreciated.

The teachers felt complimented by the presence of so many of the citizens of Hartford. Your presence is encouraging and the teachers will be pleased to have you with them again.

Some one said that he "had enough of school during the week without thinking of it on Saturday. Was he a true teacher or a person having charge of a school for 'revenue' only?"

One is inclined to ask, "Are horse sales of more vital importance to teachers than seeking to devise ways and means for a better development of the human intellect, a broader expansion of the soul?"

No part of the exercises were more heartily enjoyed than the instrumental selection rendered by Miss Verda Duke. Her renditions are characterized by her matchless power of expression and skillful execution.

The teachers who came to draw their month's wages, perhaps felt they had discharged their whole duty when they had signed the receipt in the Superintendent's office and endorsed the check and received the money. Did no thought of obligations to patrons, pupils, trustees, Superintendent and self, suggest itself at the ringing of the College bell?

Let every teacher of the county, who was absent Saturday, subscribe to the pledge made by those present at the meeting: "I shall do all in my power to make the Teachers' County Association a success." D.

SHINKLE CHAPEL.

Dec. 5.—Tobacco stripping and delivering is the order of the day. Tobacco is selling very well—on an average about $6 per hundred.

E. C. Woodward is having a grand improvement made to his house by J. T. Nimmo.

It seems that the Boda post-office must pay very well, as there has been four or five all ready asking for it.

We are having a progressive school taught by J. L. Elmore; it seems that he is liked by all.

Died, Mrs. Margaret Simmons on Friday morning, Dec. 2.

Where is she, Oh, thought sublime, Blest be the happiness that's sown In every heart within which dwells The love of mother and of home.

The love of wife is not the love That children know as mother's own. A mother's love, the truest love—Its depths by none save her is known.

Where mother is, if she's in heaven? To linger near her, we are prone, With joys supreme contentments reigns All earth seems bright with such a home.

Where mother is, if she's in heaven? O'er earth her children sadly roam With yearnings for that happy world Where mother is, our final home. Good Luck.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. BEAVER DAM.

Dec. 7.—A wonderful revival of religion is in progress at the Baptist Church here. Up to date there has been twelve additions to the church and there are eighteen penitents at the altar anxiously seeking salvation. There is a deep interest pervading the entire community and much good is expected as a result of the meeting. Rev. Casebier, the pastor in charge, is assisted by Rev. Barron, of Tenn., and Rev. A. B. Smith, of McHenry.

There has been several very desirable additions to our population recently; among those who have found homes with us we would mention Mr. — McKinney and family, recently of Rochester. We cordially welcome them among us. We are glad to note that some much needed repairs are being made on our side walks. May the good work continue until they are all that they should be.

Our school, in charge of Prof. E. R. Ray and Miss Dora E. Gibson, is in a flourishing condition. We hope soon to establish a graded school and the indications are that we will have little opposition in doing so, as there is a wide-spread interest in favor of the movement.

Mrs. S. A. Williams and little daughter, Cecil, of Hartford, are visiting her sister, Miss Gibson, and friends here this week.

Miss Murrel Butler, of Morgantown, is the guest of Attye and Sadie Austin.

Mrs. Phoebe McKenney, who has been sick for several days, is improving.

In business circles there is great activity. There has been a large delivery of tobacco than has ever been known at this place before. The shipping of stock, too, has been very great.

The general health of the town and community is very good. G.

Another Shooting.

Last Saturday night about 11 o'clock Gordon Patterson shot and dangerously, if not fatally wounded Charles Rosson near Cane Ford, in Grayson county. Rosson in company with two young men by the name of Ezell and Tunstall had gone to the house of a Mrs. Patterson, the mother of the boy, when a quarrel ensued. Rosson was ordered out of the house and went, and while lingering at the door young Patterson, who is only eighteen, shot him in the head with a shot gun. By the assistance of Ezell and a Mr. Bratcher, living near, he was taken to a neighboring house, where he now lies in a critical condition.

Dr. Ed. Ford was called on Sunday morning and succeeded in picking out no less than fifty-three shot from his left breast. Rosson is about thirty years of age and a brother to Prof. Jesse Rosson, a former teacher in Hartford College, and also to Wallace Rosson, merchant at Trisler. It is said he now and then plays the role of blind tiger and is quarrelsome when drinking. We learn Patterson gave himself up on Monday.

College Happenings.

Since our last report death has visited our school and taken from us one of our members. In the latter part of last September Mr. Seth Swan, a young man about eighteen years of age, of Henderson county, came to this town to attend school. He matriculated and was at his recitation only one-half days, when he was taken sick and was called upon to give up the work that he had only just begun. He lay upon his bed of pain and suffering for eight long weeks, when on last Monday afternoon about four o'clock God relieved him of his sufferings by taking his soul from this mortal world to its eternal home in heaven. Mr. Swan bore his severe affliction without a murmur and said from the first if it was the will of God that he should not recover that he was ready to go, and when the summons came he submitted without a struggle. Although he had been with us but a short time, as a student, nevertheless we felt that we knew him, because of the peculiar attraction of him. We extend to the bereaved father and relatives our deepest sympathy.

Our school was honored on last Thursday morning by the presence of the Grand Jury, at General Exercises. Dr. Alexander made a fine talk that morning, which was enjoyed very much.

Rev. H. C. Truman attended General X Monday.

Messrs. R. Nelson, Silas Griffin and Floyd Crafton, who accompanied the remains of Mr. Swan home will return Sunday.

Prof. Lytle has returned from Henderson county where he went to attend the funeral of Mr. Swan.

Miss Georgia Hudson was called to her home last Thursday to attend the funeral of her uncle. She returned Monday.

Rev. L. R. Barnett conducted General Exercises Thursday morning and made a good talk. **

To solve the problem requires thought. But the simple fact is known to many—that Dr. Fennell's Golden Relief cures Consumption. It does it every time and in every case, when used before the lungs have become too far disorganized. Here's a typical case: Miss Jones, aged 30, has lost 25 pounds, cheeks have the "hollow flush"; coughs and raises all the time; has just returned from the South, where she spent the winter. Did not improve. She takes 3 drops of Dr. Fennell's Golden Relief, on a small lump of sugar, once in 2 hours. Improvement begins at once. In 2 weeks she has gained 10 pounds. In 6 weeks she weighs 130 and is cured. The remedy is a SPECIFIC IN INFLAMMATION. No inflammation, no soreness, no consumption. Thus it cures a long list of ailments from a common sore throat, to a grave bronchitis, asthma and consumption, from a toothache to a grave neuralgia, from a headache to a grave rheumatism and from summer complaint to a grave dysentery, cholera or flux. This wide range of application has sometimes unjustly caused it to be dubbed a "cure all." But it isn't. It cures one disease and that is inflammation. Inflammation cannot exist in its presence—and that "solves the problem." One tablespoonful does cure La Grippe. It never disappoints. Contains no opiates, narcotics or mineral poisons. Perfectly safe. Money refunded if satisfaction not given. Take home a bottle today.
